I've been friends with grape grower Brian Gallaway, almost as long as I've lived in Sonoma County. Brian's ranch is located just outside the town of Healdsburg on West Dry Creek Road; the grapes are grown on an eastern facing hillside vineyard along the western slope of the Dry Creek Valley, producing a distinctive wine rich with warm berry flavors. After not being able to secure Zinfandel grapes from our grower in Alexander Valley, Brian offered us his.

Tasting Notes: This wine is full of red raspberry and black pepper flavors along with great acidity and LOW alcohol. This wine has also been minimally handled and is UNFILTERED, so please allow it to rest upright for a few weeks before serving.
